Women of the New Testament

Bible Study with Pastor Lisa Icenhower.

The Reverend Lisa Icenhower has been serving as the pastor of Faith Evangelical Lutheran Church in Batesburg-Leesville since April of 2015. Prior to attending seminary, she was the chair of the Humanities and English Division at Spartanburg Methodist College. Pastor Lisa loves literature, music, dogs, and children. In her spare time, she loves spending time with her two grandchildren, taking her dog for walks, teaching aerobic exercise classes, cooking, and crocheting.

Pastor Lisa and her late husband Bob, who died in 2020, have two adult sons, Rob and Andrew. Rob is a psychology professor at Ryder University in New Jersey, and Andrew is the pastor of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Forest Acres, South Carolina. Pastor

Lisa will lead WELCA retreat participants in a study of women in the New Testament and their actual roles in the ministry of Jesus and the early church.
